

Bilingual/ESL Education Student Organization

B.E.S.O

December 2014

Volume 3, Issue 3

B.E.S.O

Inside this issue:

Upcoming Events	1
Old News	2
Bright Minds, Better Future	3
December Calendar	4
Sponsors	4
Follow Us	4

Upcoming Events

B.E.S.O.

Bilingual/ESL Education
Student Organization

The fall semester had many wonderful volunteer opportunities for members to earn points toward their regalia. As the semester comes to a close B.E.S.O. wishes all of its members a safe winter vacation. We hope that you enjoy your break with all your loved ones and we hope that you enjoy the holidays.

Congratulations to all the seniors who will be graduating this month. All of your hard work and dedication has brought you to this great achievement. We wish you good luck in your journey as an educator.

B.E.S.O. will be holding a celebration in honor of the senior graduating in December. There will be food, prizes, and fun as we congratulate and say farewell to the graduating B.E.S.O. seniors of UNT Dallas Fall 2014 .

The celebration will take place on December 16 in building 2 room 308. The time of this event is from 4 p.m.– 6 p.m.

B.E.S.O. members it is time to let your voice be heard! Who do you want as president for the 2015-2016 school year? If you have some one in mind email us with the name of your nominee. Nominations for the president elect will be open until December 3, 2014. After all the nominations are submitted B.E.S.O. will open a poll on Jagsync. The poll will open on December 5th and will be open until December 15th at 3:00 p.m. The results of the poll will be announced on December 16th!

B.E.S.O. thanks everyone for participating in all the events held throughout the semester. Once again, happy holidays!

Special points of interest:

- ◆ Upcoming Events
- ◆ Bright Minds, Better Future
- ◆ December Calendar

*“Education is the key to unlocking the golden
door to freedom*

-George Washington Carver

Old News

El Dia de los Muertos/ Day of the Dead

El Dia de los Muertos is a tradition in many Hispanic countries where families can honor their loved ones that have passed away. B.E.S.O. members were able to participate in this even that was held on October 30th to November 5th. Members brought pictures of their loved ones and to an altar located in front of the library.

Education is the key to success in life, and every teacher makes a lasting impact in the lives of their students.
-Solomon Ortiz

NAEYC

NAEYC was held November 5th-November 8th at the Kay Bayley Hutchinson Convention Center in Dallas, TX. Members were able to attend different workshops and listen to various key speakers.

Food Drive

B.E.S.O. in collaboration with LULAC held a food drive that was held on October 31, 2014 to November 14, 2014. Members that donated received five points for the first five items and one point after. The donations went to benefit the immigrant children from Central and South America.

TextESOL

This year TESOL was held in San Marcos on November 14 and November 15. Members spent their time going to different workshops and listening to different speakers.

Members had fun and had an experience that they will always remember.

Bake Sale

B.E.S.O. was able to hold a very successful bake sale thanks to all the members that volunteered and the bakeries that donated all of the pastries that were sold.

The bake sale was held on November 12 in the Dal 2 atrium.

Bright Minds, Better Future

B.E.S.O. members we want to hear your thoughts on what being an educator is to you. Here is what education and being an educator means to some of our members. If you would like to be featured in our new section of the newsletter please email us with your thoughts to the B.E.S.O. email.

“Being an educator means that I have an amazing opportunity to be a role model that is able to supply students with great knowledge and someone who has the ability to encourage them to follow their dreams at all cause. “

-Tania Lara

“Being an educator means helping children discover that there is more out there for them than just what society thinks of them. That they can do whatever they set their mind to”

-Stephanie De La Cruz

“Education means everything to me. Education is the answer to all problems in life. Education will be what I advocate to my future students in hope of creating the best future generation of the world!”

-Jennifer Marroquin

“As an educator I have high expectations for all of my students. My goals include to make learning enjoyable and everlasting. At last my childhood dream is becoming a reality! I am ecstatic!”

-Tabitha Moreno

“Education helps us navigate through life, and experience is our best teacher. Formal education is just one of many ways to acquire knowledge. For my students, I will strive to provide fun experiences that bring awareness to their relevance outside of the classroom to ignite meaningful learning they can apply in the present and future.”

-Mirna Reyes

*Education is not only a ladder of opportunity, but it is also an investment in our future.”
-Ed Markey*

December 2014

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	1	2	3 End of Nominations	4	5 Poll Opens	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16 Mini Celebration-Poll Closes	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31

Please Follow/Like Us

On:

 B.E.S.O

B.E.S.O UNT DALLAS

@BesoUntDallas

Instagram @beso_untdallas

- Please feel free to email us at beso.unt.dallas@gmail.com

Sponsors

B.E.S.O. would like to thank Panera, Soon Ja's Bakery, Casa Linda Bakery, and Paradise Bakery for their generosity and support in B.E.S.O's bake sale.

B.E.S.O. would also like to thank the Jagger Café for their wonderful donation for the November General Meeting.

