

B.E.S.O.’s Point System

FALL 2014-SPRING 2015

In an effort to create excitement and promote attendance of members at activities happening within the organization, the executive board has developed a point system to reward active members in the organization. Below you will find that every event held/sponsored by the organization will have a point value. If you attend an event for $\frac{3}{4}$ of the time you will receive the points allotted for the event. The point value of each event can only be changed by a majority vote of the executive committee. At the end of two semesters, if a member has attained enough points, he/she will be eligible to receive an honor for their time and dedication. Awards are chosen by the current executive committee and can be changed. Officers do not have to collect points since they are required by the BESO constitution to attend most organization events.
